Requirements for the submission and design of articles

1. No more than two articles from one author.
2. The length of the article is not more than 6 p. (including illustrations, tables, summary and literature, considering the translation of the necessary information). Paper size - A4 (210x297), all fields width - 2 cm. Font - Times New Roman, font size (pin) - 12, line spacing - single (1.0), paragraph indentation - 1.25, letter spacing - normal, word spacing - 1 character, hyphens - automatic (not manual), text alignment - width. Allowed selections - italic, bold. The hyphen should be different from the dash. The dash and the quotation marks should be the same throughout the text. The entire text part of the article should be written in 1 file (cover sheet, UDC, annotation, keywords, text of the article, tables, list of quoted literature, information about the authors); the file with the text of the article should be named after the first author of the article (Ivanov. Text). Drawings and scans of documents are written in separate files, also containing the name of the first author (Ivanov. Figure).

3. Language of the article. Articles are submitted in the state (Kyrgyz), official (Russian or English) languages, carefully edited, (in electronic version). If the article is written in Russian, then it is obligatory to translate the metadata of the article into Kyrgyz and English languages (authors' full name, institutions of authors, addresses, title of the article, summary of the article, keywords). For foreign authors, the editors of the journal carry out the translation of metadata into the Kyrgyz language themselves.

4. Articles by foreign authors in English may be published by decision of the chief editor of the journal without translation into Russian (except the title, summary and keywords) or with full or partial translation (names and signatures to figures, tables).

5. The research methodology should be clearly described. It is recommended to follow the «Common Standards for Presentation of Results and Tests of the CONSORT Expert Group» (Consolidated Standards of Reporting Trials), which can be found at <http://www.consort-statement.org/>.

6. Table formatting. At the top right you need to mark the number of the table, through the bar you give the name. Abbreviations in the tables are not allowed. The figures in the tables should correspond to the figures in the text.

7. Bibliographic lists. The list of literature is placed at the end of the article and is drawn up in accordance with GOST 7.1-2003, GOST R 7.0.9-2009. The bibliographic references in the text of the article are given in square brackets. References used to link the text with the bibliographic list are made out with the indication of pages. [1, p.15].

8. Submitted articles must be carefully edited and contain original material not previously published. The author is personally responsible for the content of the materials.

9. For the publication of materials in the journal "Bulletin of Physical Culture and Sport", it is necessary to have 2 reviews for the article (internal and external - with the signature of the reviewer and the seal of the organization) and a certificate of passage to the "Anti-plagiarism", a receipt for payment for the publication of the article. The editors reserve the right not to include articles for publication in the scientific and practical journal "Bulletin of physical culture and sport" if they do not meet the requirements for scientific publications of the NAC of KR.
